DR. GOWANS PLEADS FOR BETTER HOME TRAINING

OGDEN, June 20.—Dr. Ephraim G. Gowans, superintendent of the State Industrial school, was the speaker at the tabernacie Sunday afternoon. his subject being "Foundations of Morai Education." The subject was handled in an able and interesting manner and the large number of people in attendance. arge number of people in attendance-were fully repaid for going. Dr. Gowans said in part:

"It is the vital duty of every mother "It is the vital duty of every mother and father to establish proper home surroundings and training for their children. Most of the inmates of the industrial school are not inclined to evil to any abnormal degree, but have reached their present condition simply from lack of proper training while at home. If the parents would see to it that the children have better moral surroundings, better home ties and better home teachings, there would be fewer incorrigible children and the state Industrial school would contain far less inmates than it does at the present."
